

LU WANG
(JOHNS HOPKINS)

On the asymptotic structures of two-dimensional self-shrinkers

Self-shrinkers are models of singularities of mean curvature flow of codimension one. In the variational point of view, they are critical points of the Gaussian weighted area functional. In this talk, we will describe the asymptotic structures for a large class of two-dimensional self-shrinkers of finite index.