

DAVID MAXWELL
(UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS)

Interior estimates for elliptic operators associated with low-regularity Riemannian metrics

Work in general relativity sometimes requires using elliptic operators associated with metrics having low Sobolev regularity. In this talk we describe the mapping properties of these operators, and an elementary approach to establishing interior elliptic estimates for these operators from scaling arguments, without resort to pseudodifferential operators with rough coefficients.