

BATTLE: DONUTS

Here at epastry, people are always asking us how we can deliver donuts to all seven countries around this donut-loving planet. Our secret: we have an office wherever three countries meet:

Clockwise Offices:

- Consume
- Give money to
- Cat or dog, e.g.
- Workout unit
- Pig pen
- Attempt
- Not no

Counterclockwise Offices:

- __ Technica
- Deadly snake
- Sailor's affirmative
- Use a lever
- Redmond clock setting in Jan.
- Unwanted rodent
- Second notes

After setting up those offices, we placed one helpful sign along each national border:

So, how do you follow our delivery route? From the starting point, head over the border into Yeastland. Take a sharp right turn into Raspberia, then a shallow right turn. Take another shallow right, and then a sharp right to get back to your starting point. Go straight three times to reach Applesia, and then take a shallow right. Take a shallow left, a shallow right, and then a shallow left. Now take a sharp right and a shallow left back into Applesia. Take a sharp left, a shallow left, and a sharp right. Finally, a shallow left, a sharp right, and a shallow right will bring you back to the start.
